STAGE

6 | STONEMASON RELEASE

Flanked with green areas on either end, the Stage 6 Stonemason Release is named after the boulevard it stretches across. There are several premium lots that are over 600sqm and facing parkland. The remaining lots are all between 500sqm - 600sqm in size, with great frontage. The Stonemason Release is across the road from a newly built playground and is a short stroll to the proposed cultural heritage reserve and community hub. As with all the lots in the development, the railway station, parks and gardens are within an easy walking distance. The proximity to the park is ideal for people with growing families, and couples can capitalise on the nearby river walk and proposed Village Plaza.
